Job Purpose:

To prepare, deliver and assess high quality teaching and learning within the Education and Early Years programmes, ensuring excellent learner outcomes, progression and experience.

The role includes planning and delivering across a range of programmes, supporting curriculum development and contributing to the wider college community, employer engagement and enrichment activities.

The post is based at Lincoln College, but could involve teaching at other centres.

PRINCIPAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. To plan, prepare and deliver high-quality teaching, learning and assessment (face-to-face, online and blended).
2. To be responsible for course delivery, course management and learner success rates within the subject area.
3. To maintain high standards of teaching and learning through peer review, observation and reflective practice.
4. To undertake assessment, internal verification and maintain accurate learner records in line with quality standards.
5. To contribute to curriculum design, development and continuous improvement aligned to employer and industry needs.
6. To support recruitment, selection and enrolment of learners.
7. To liaise with employers, schools, universities and other stakeholders to support progression and partnerships.
8. To contribute to enrichment activities (trips, visits, guest speakers, employer engagement).
9. To engage in continuous professional development, maintaining up-to-date subject and pedagogical knowledge.
10. To support quality assurance processes and awarding body requirements.
11. To participate in cross-college activities, working groups and strategic initiatives.
12. To promote a positive, inclusive and supportive learning environment that motivates learners.
13. To actively support learner wellbeing, safeguarding and personal development.
14. To contribute to the development of innovative delivery methods including digital and blended learning.
15. To maintain professional standards and expertise, integrity and accountability in all aspects of the role and undertaking relevant professional development including active participation in Golden Hours.
16. To accept responsibility for the implementation of the College's Equal Opportunities policy throughout all personal contacts in the College and within this area of responsibility.
17. To maintain quality standards appropriate to the post.
18. To conform with the Health and Safety requirements relevant to the post.
19. To be responsible for the safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children wherever applicable within the role.

N.B. This is not a complete statement of all duties and responsibilities of this post. The postholder may be required to carry out other lawful and reasonable duties as directed by a supervising manager.
